Notes on ELLEN MARY 'Nellie' HARRY [HAY]

Ellen Mary HAY, the eldest child of Henry Thomas HAY and Jane Agnes O'KEEFFE, was born November 28th 1901, Maffra, Victoria.

At the age of 17 yrs, with the consent of her father, Ellen married Edgar Lewis HARRY, labourer and returned Soldier, at St. Patrick's Roman Catholic Church, Camperdown on the 4th of September 1919.

Moving to Geelong, Victoria, their first child, Eileen Mary was born 15th March 1920, followed by Dorothy Patricia in 1922 and Audrey Francis, 4th Feb 1923. Their son, Geoffrey/Jeffrey Myrick HARRY was born at Koroit, Victoria on the 29th May 1925.

About 1927, Ellen Mary HARRY nee HAY contracted Tuberculosis, and on the 14th June 1931 aged 29 yrs, at the Austin Hospital, Melbourne, succumbed to her illness. Ellen was buried at Terang Cemetery.

Edgar Lewis HARRY, aged 36 yrs, was unable to tend to his childrens needs, thus, entrusting his widowed mother, 'Nellie' Mary nee QUINLAN of Camperdown, with 2 of his daughters, Dorothy Patricia and Audrey Frances HARRY. However, they were soon placed into Abbotsford Convent where they remained until 1937. Ellen and Edgars 2 other children, Eileen Mary (eldest) and Geoffrey/Jeffrey Myrick HARRY (youngest) were cared for by Ellen

Mary nee HAY's parents, Thomas Henry HAY and Jane Agnes nee O'KEEFFE, living at Dennington, Victoria at the time. Edgar returned to the HARRY farm at Ballarat and continued to run a small dairy where his grown children and expanding number of grandchildren would visit. He also sought solace in working with horses and playing his violin. Edgar never remarried and remained on his farm until his death in 1963. Edgar Lewis HARRY was buried alongside his wife, Ellen Mary HARRY, at Terang.
(note: Edgar Lewis HARRY's wife had the same name as His mother: ELLEN MARY HARRY although his mother was 'known' as NELLIE... Also to be noted: stated on Edgar's wives death certificate, her name is recorded as, 'ETHEL' Mary HARRY and HER mothers name as, 'ETHEL MARY' HAY, are both incorrect).

Ellen Mary HARRY nee HAY and Edgar Lewis HARRY are buried at Terang Cemetery. Headstone reads:

Notes on Sheila Veronica Lane [HAY]

Newspaper article: 1939

At St. Joseph's Church, Warrnambool there was the scene of a very pretty wedding, which took place on May 11. The bride was Sheila, younger daughter of Mrs. Hay of 'Youthapinga', Lava St, Warrnambool, and the late Mr. Thomas Hay, and the bridegroom James, third son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Lane, 'Willowbrook', Yangery. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Fr. Hussey. The bride, who was given away by Mr. W. Brennan, was charming and dignified in her lovely wedding gown of ivory fingerprinted satin. It was made on simple classical lines, that suited her dark good looks to perfection. With its high neck-line, slimly fitting sleeves, and long, circular train, it was admirably off-set by a long tulle veil, held back off her hair by a coronet of orange blossom buds. She carried a beautiful bouquet of white chrysanthemums, gladioli, carnations and fern. The bride's nequew, Jeff Harry, and little Billy McGuire, hung lucky horse-shoes on her arm as she walked down the aisle, to the strains of the beautiful wedding march, played by Mr. Roper. Attending her was her sister Beryl, who wore a patau pink georgette frock, made with high neckline, a fitted bodice with short puff sleeves, and a full skirt with a corded hem-line. Tiny velvet ribbon bows made a dainty finish. A matching tulle veil was worn over the face held to the head by a wreath of blue and pink forget-me-nots. Her bouquet was composed of pink carnations, gladioli and delphiniums. The bridegroom was supported by his friend, Mr. Ned White. The wedding reception was held at the Nella Maris Cafe. Mrs. Hay received her guests wearing a smart black suit, black felt hat relieved by a white ostrich feather mount, brown squirrel furs, and a dainty posy. Many beautiful gifts and cheques were received by the C.R.B. employees. The happy couple left by train to spend their honeymoon in Melbourne and Geelong. The bride travelled in a smart burgundy tweed ensemble, the coat having collar and pockets of clipped fur to tone, black accessories were worn. Mr and Mrs Lane are now settled in a flat in Lava Street.
